

Hale County

What exactly is Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Service/ Hale County Extension Office?

In short, we help improve Texans' lives through education.

We cover three main areas of every day life:

- Family & Community Health (FCH)
- 4-H Youth Development (4-H)
- Agriculture & Integrated Pest Management (AG & IPM)

Let us explain...

Benefits & Services Of Our Office:

Here are some of the different ways we can help you

Family & Community Health

Car Seat Safety & Inspection

Food Safety & Healthy Cooking

Disease Prevention & Management

Healthy Living & Exercise

Youth Development

Life Skills

Leadership

Civic Engagement

Public Speaking

Agriculture

Insect Pest Management & I.D.

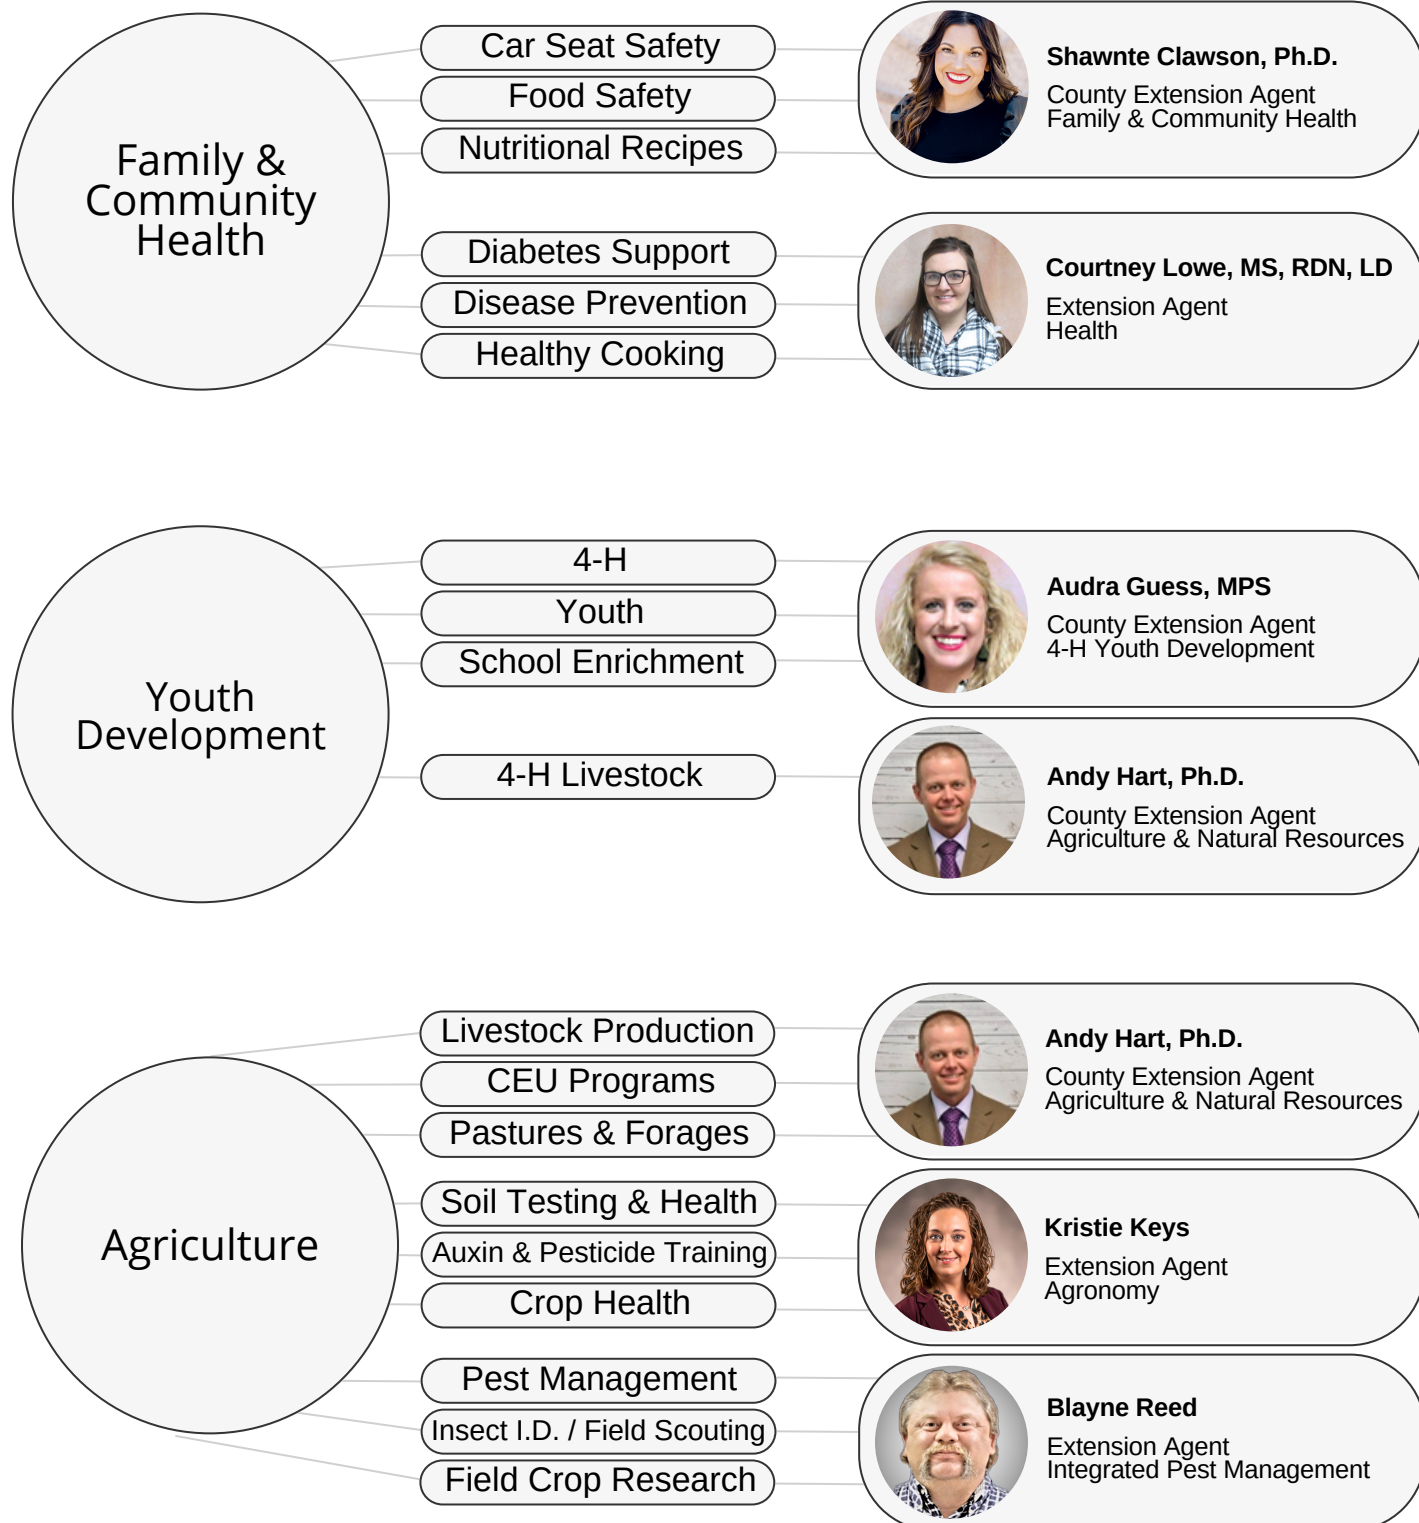

Crop Management & Research

Livestock Management

Soil Health & Testing

Who Can Best Support You?

Each Agent has a specific area of service

How to Connect With Us:

Call, Email, or Visit Our Office

(806) 291-5267

hale@ag.tamu.edu

225 Broadway, Suite 6
Plainview, Texas 79072

Our entrance is located on the West side of the building, facing Austin Street.

Our Office Support Staff Can Assist You Through This Process!

Have a question or concern? Contact our office. Cathy and Audrey are always happy to answer any questions you might have or help direct you to the right agent.

Office Manager
4-H & FCH

Cathy Banda
Hale County Extension
Office Manager

Secretary
Agriculture & Livestock

Audrey Gloyna
Hale County Extension
Secretary

Secretary
Pest Management

Denise Reed
Hale County Extension
Secretary